

Stop bullying satellite radio. I enjoy my service and do not want to lose out on the programming options I currently have, especially the news and weather channels